BARAMBAH BUSH CAMP

The Barambah Bush Camp currently has a mountain bike single trail network. They also offer cabin and camping accommodation, kiosk, BBQ facilities and much more.

THE LINK ROUTE

The Link Route links the Brisbane Valley Rail Trail in Yarraman to Nanango and then onto Kingaroy. The route utilises an old stock route from Yarraman to Nanango and then quite bitumen and dirt roads to Kingaroy. This route showcases the wonderful countryside around the South Burnett.

NAN 1 AND NAN 2 CIRCUIT RIDES

These circuit rides both start and finish in the township of Nanango. The rides are fully mapped and signposted. NAN 1 is 32kms in length and NAN 2 is 22kms. Both rides showcase the amazing countryside around Nanango, with views East to Linville and West to the Bunya Mountains and Kingaroy..

LINVILLE TO NANAGO CIRCUIT RIDE

This is a challenging and spectacular ride that spans 126 kms. This ride utilizes the Brisbane Valley Rail Trail to Yarraman, The Link Route to Nanango and quite country dirt and bitumen roads back to Linville. Staying overnight in Nanango is a good option.

WONDAI MOUNTAIN BIKE TRAILS

Over 18 kms of single track right next to the township of Wondai. These trails are situated in native eucalypt forestry. With something for everyone.

GORDONBREOOK DAM MOUNTAIN BIKE TRAILS

Situated 6 kms from the South Burnett Rail Trail and 18 kms from Kingaroy, these trails are under development. The trails are ready to ride and when completed will include a skills park, pump track and a dual slalom trail just for something different.

SOUTH BURNETT RAIL TRAIL

This Rail Trail stretches from Kingaroy through to Kilkivan. This Rail Trail has a 43 km sealed section between Kingaroy and Murgon. From Murgon the trail is unsealed and continues for a further 45 kms to Kilkivan.

RAIL TRAIL LOOP RIDES

There are currently 6 mapped and fully signposted loop rides coming off the South Burnett Rail Trail between Memerambi and Tingoora. There are also plans for a 7th trail linking the Rail Trail to the wineries at Moffatdale.
